COUNTRY  Car any (named an total)  CONFIDENTIAL  NO. OF PAGES 1  Formallibry: olice  ACC  COURTED  ACT  COURTED  ACT  COURTED  SUPPLEMENT TO  REPORT NO  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  SUPPLEMENT TO  REPORT NO  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  SOX1-HUM  1. There can be little don't from the large number of officers in the present persuilibrary establishment that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of sufft and efficient expansion. Here the present staff efficient and were uniform and equipment available, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for intible in three months.  2. All signs point to wide-speed inefficiency, however, perticularly amongst the new officers, and servines difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of wiferers and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable for nor recented for any major expansion.  3. The practical purposes full exployment exists in the Bussian fonc. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disruption the current rive-year plan.	classified	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY REPORT
UBJECT  Possibility of Amending the Paramilitary of Local Country of Mo. OF PAGES 1  Paramilitary of Local Country of Mo. OF PAGES 1  Formalitary of Local Country of Mo. OF PAGES 1  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  1. There can be little doubt from the large number of officers in the present paramilitary establishment that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient enables. When the large number of officers and early of the paramilitary establishment with the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient enables. When the present shaff efficient and were uniform and equipment aw Al-bid, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for intile in the present shaff efficient and very uniform and equipment aw Al-bid, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained to violate and inspection. Therefore, particularly amongst the new officers, and service difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present response to the paramilitary amongst the new officers and equipment of the present in the paramilitary amongst indication that stocks of ufforce and equipment are being built up as held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  1. The financial report of the paramilitary services could be induled in without disruption the current five-year plan.  CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICATION APPROVED TO U.S. OFFICIALS OBLY  SOXI-HUM  CLASSIFICATION APPROVED TO U.S. OFFICIALS OBLY		INFARATION BEROME
AND OF PAGES 1 Paramilitary: olice  LAGE COURRD  ATE OF  Who Supplement to Supplement to Supplement to REPORT NO  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  50X1-HUM  1. There can be little doub from the large number of officers in the present permilitary establishms a that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient epansion. Were the present staff efficient and ware uniform and equipment available, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for within in three months.  2. All signs point to wide-spread inefficiency, however, perticularly amongst the new officers, and services difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment of the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of utiforns and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of utiforns and equipment of new repeated for any najor expansion.  3. Ar practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Yone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disruption the current five-year plan.  CONFIDENTIAL  STATE   Mass	OLDERS TO A
ACC COUNTED  ATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT TO SEPORTION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  1. There can be little doub' from the large number of officers in the present paramilitary establishment that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of sufft and efficient a panation. For the present staff efficient and ware uniform and equipment aviable, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for lattle in three months.  2. All signs point to wide-speed inefficiency, however, perticularly amongst the new officers, and service stifficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of usifers and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable for any repeated for any najor expansion.  3. Present supplies the force of the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disruptin; the current five-year plan.  CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL  STATE NAME NAME OF THE STANDARD STREETING SOILS ONLY  STATE NAME NAME OF THE STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STATE NAME OF THE STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STANDARD STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STANDARD STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STANDARD STANDARD SOILS ONLY  STANDARD SOILS O		TALIAL INC.	•
ATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO  1. There can be little doubt from the large number of officers in the present paramiltary establishment to a management of the three that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient equantion. Never the present staff efficient and were uniforms and equipment available intended as lattle doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for intile in three anoths.  2. All signs point to wide-spead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and services difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform an indication that stocks of afforce and equipment are being uniform the capable of nor received for any major expension.  3. The Russian Tone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disrupting the current five-year plan.  50X  CONFIDENTIAL MANY MANY MANY MANY MANY MANY MANY MANY	UBJECT
ATTE OF SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  50X1-HUM  50X1-HUM  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  50X1-HUM  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  50X1-HUM  50X1-HUM  50X1-HUM  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  50X1-HUM  60X1-HUM  60X		NO. OF ENCLS.
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  1. There can be little doub from the large number of officers in the present peramilitary establishment that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient e paneton. Neve the present staff efficient and were uniform and equipment available, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for wattle in three menths.  2. All signs point to wide-apead inefficiency, however, perticularly amongst the new officers, and seek as difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment available and infificiency, however, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor repeated for any major expension.  3. Reposition of a large-cale expension. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor repeated for any major expension.  3. Reposition for large-cale expension. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor repeated for any major expension.  3. Reposition for a large-cale expension. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor repeated for any major expension.  3. Reposition for a large-cale expension in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disrupting the current five-year plan.  5. CONFIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICATION STORMAN DESCRIPTION DESCRIPTION STORMAN DESCRIPTION DESCR	,	50X	(1-HUM
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  1. There can be little doub from the large number of officers in the present paramilitary establishment which that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient e pansion. Were the present staff efficient and were uniform and equipment available, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for istable in three months.  2. All signs point to wide-sp ead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and servius difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for he force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of wiforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  3.			•
paramilitary establishment that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient emandion. Were the present staff efficient and were uniform and equipment av. Arble, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for lattle in three months.  2. All signs point to wide-sp ead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and sewhous difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of ulforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  3.	of the united U.S.C., at And OF Its Content	STATES SITHING THE DEADLING OF THE REPORTAGE ACT TO BE ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL AL	(1-HUM paramilitary establishme to that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient epansion. Were the present staff efficient and were uniform and equipment as Alable, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 men could be trained for lattle in three months.  2. All signs point to wide-spead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  3.
the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  3.   Ar practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Zone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disruptin the current five-year plan.  Becement No.  No Change in Class. Declassing Class. Changed Te: Ts & Classification - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE X MANY X MERRY DISTRIBUTION - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	1.	paramilitary establishment that the organization is intended as a cadre capable of swift and efficient expansion. Were the present staff efficient and were uniform and equipment available, there is little doubt that a draft of 300,000 constant.
the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disrupting the current five-year plan.    Desument No.		men could be trained for lattic in three months.
CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION	2.	All signs point to wide-sp ead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands
CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be
CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be
CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  CLASSIFICATION S DESTRIBUTION  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be
CLASSIFICATION S CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  50X		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be
CLASSIFICATION S TOTAL CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Classification S TOTAL  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Classification S TOTAL  Date: G SEP 1978  50X		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be	50 X
CLASSIFICATION S CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION  No Change in Class.  Declassified  Class. Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HR 70-2  Date: _6 _ SEP 1978  50X		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be
CLASSIFICATION SAPET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE X NAVY X NSRET DISTRIBUTION  CLASSIFICATION SAPET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY		All signs point to wide-splead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If r practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be
CLASSIFICATION S 173ET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE X NAVY X NSRE: DISTRIBUTION 50X		All signs point to wide-spead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  Or practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disrupting the current five-year plan.
STATE X NAVY X NSRE DISTRIBUTION		All signs point to wide-spead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  Are practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Fone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disrupting the current five-year plan.  Because the Razz.  Because the Razz.	50X -
tenting tenting tenting to the first tenting to the first tenting tent		All signs point to wide-sp ead inefficiency, however, particularly amongst the new officers, and serious difficulties are being encountered in providing uniforms and equipment for the force at its present strength. There is no indication that stocks of uniforms and equipment are being built up or held in anticipation of a large-cale expansion. Therefore, the force as it stands is probably neither capable of nor prepared for any major expansion.  If practical purposes full employment exists in the Russian Yone. No great increase in the paramilitary services could be indulged in without disrupting the current five-year plan.    Confidence in Class   Declassified	